Identify/Address Needs

List up to three quantifiable needs, as identified in your needs assessment, that these program funds will address. Describe your plan for addressing each need.

Quantifiable Need	Plan for Addressing Need
There is a need for increasing the number of stable diverse instructional leadership candidates for principal positions in small rural districts.	The plan will focus on recruitment of and provide preference to diverse instructional teacher leaders as there is a severe shortage of diverse leadership in rural districts especially those with a high economically disadvantaged student population. This does not preclude other applicants.
There is a quantifiable need for improved instructional practices.	Principal preparation will include a year-long clinical experience with emphases on instructional coaching and developing effective professional learning communities.
There is a quantifiable need to increase the use of data, create student interventions, and target gaps within instructional practices.	Principal preparation program and coaching from WISD will emphasize the use of data to assist in targeted interventions for students, instructional improvement for teachers as well as learn coaching techniques to retain and grow current teacher(s) instructional practices on campus.

SMART Goal

Describe the summative SMART goal you have identified for this program (a goal that is Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Timely), either related to student outcome or consistent with the purpose of the grant.

WISD will increase the number of diverse instructional leader candidates who have acquired and demonstrate skills in increasing student achievement as measured by STAAR/EOC (and/or Renaissance Learning/TPRI (Pre-Kindergarten - 2 Campus).

This goal is specific. It can easily be measured by tracking applicant applications and their student(s)/teacher(s) achievement in assigned PLC. Candidates in the program will have to demonstrate their proficiency in using data to improve student achievement as part of the year-long clinical experience. The objective is relevant and timely based on the implementation of the new A-F accountability system. Helping students and teachers increase performance to achieve "Meets" and "Masters" on the new scale.

Measurable Progress

Identify the benchmarks that you will use at the end of the first three grant quarters to measure progress toward meeting the process and implementation goals defined for the grant.

First-Quarter Benchmark:

1. Recruit and select WISD teacher leaders for admission into the grant program (April 30, 2018).
2. Recruited teacher leaders apply for admission and are accepted into The University of Texas at Tyler's (UT Tyler) Master's with principal certification program (May 1, 2018).
3. Admitted students meet face-to-face to discuss program expectations. This group will make-up a professional learning community of program student's specific to the needs of Westwood ISD and East Texas (May 12, 2018).
4. Candidates start academic classes in the UT Tyler principal program (May 21, 2018).
5. Candidates students attend around June 6-8, 2018 in Austin, TX (June 6-8, 2018).
6. Participation in PLCs will meet during the summer (June-August, 2018).
7. Candidates will complete EDLR 5310 and EDLR 5313 during summer (August, 2018)

Measurable Progress (Cont.)Second-Quarter Benchmark:

1. Candidates register for EDLR 5311 (Developmental Supervision), EDLR 5349 (Leadership in the Restructured School), and EDLR 5270 (Practicum in the Principalship I).
2. Candidates begin classes (August 27, 2018).
3. Provide site mentor training (September 1, 2018).
4. Field supervisors (TEA certified) meet with site mentors on candidates campus. A plan is developed to ensure a rigorous clinical experience with a focus on instructional coaching.
5. Participation in PLCs during the fall (September-December, 2018).
6. Field supervisors monitor candidate activities to ensure high quality instructional coaching, use of data, and development of school culture.
7. There will be a transitional meeting of the candidate PLC to introduce candidates to the next quarter's goals

Third-Quarter Benchmark:

1. Candidates register for EDLR 5320 (School Law), EDLR 5333 (Administration of Special Programs), and EDLR 5271 (Practicum in the Principalship II). Note: Candidates will need to register for EDLR 5330 (The Principalship), EDLR 5337 (School Building Operations), and EDLR 5272 (Practicum in the Principalship III) for summer 2019 to finish the coursework for the Master's degree.
2. Candidates begin classes (January).
3. Field supervisors meet with site mentors on candidates campus to discuss any obstacles from the previous quarter and to outline a strategy for the continuation of a high-quality clinical experiences (Jan).
4. Participation in PLCs during the spring (January-May, 2019).
5. Field supervisors monitor candidate activities to ensure high quality instructional coaching, use of data, and development of school culture.

Project Evaluation and Modification

Describe how you will use project evaluation data to determine when and how to modify your program. If your benchmarks or summative SMART goals do not show progress, describe how you will use evaluation data to modify your program for sustainability.

The program is designed to provide candidates with relevant and practical experiences. To assure that the program is meeting the needs of the candidates, we will implement the following logic model. We will examine:

INPUTS <-----> Activities <-----> Outputs <-----> Effects

Inputs include the recruitment process and design of the interventions.

Activities includes courses, seminars, and clinical experiences.

Outputs includes Success in Mastering content and skills.

Effects includes post program success when hired.

During the program we will use an iterative process to assure candidates are successful.

1. Surveys will be given to students, site mentors, and field supervisors each semester in which the candidate is involved in clinical experiences.
2. Student videos of pre/post/goal conferences (per T-TESS) will be evaluated to determine effectiveness.
3. Instructional evaluation of teachers as performed by the candidate will be compared to the site mentor to determine inter-rater reliability.
4. The field supervisor, site mentor, and university professor will meet to determine leadership/instructional coaching strengths/weaknesses are determined. Interventions will be developed to strengthen weak areas.

Statutory/Program Requirements

1. The LEA must provide sustained and rigorous clinical learning in an authentic school setting and substantial leadership responsibilities such as the ability to address and resolve a significant problem/challenge in the school that influences practice and student learning; the skills needed to establish and support effective and continuous professional development with assigned teaching staff; and the ability to facilitate stakeholders' efforts to build a collaborative team within the school to improve instructional practice, student achievement, and the school culture.

Westwood ISD will provide the following assurances regarding developing a sustained and rigorous clinical learning experience in an authentic school setting, as well as providing authentic leadership responsibilities for candidates. Westwood Independent School District (WISD) and the individual campus' will foster authentic school setting leadership experiences to residents within the principal preparation program.

1) WISD will partner with The University of Texas at Tyler (IHE)

Partner with The University of Texas at Tyler for principal preparation. UT Tyler has three practicum experiences within their program that emphasizes instructional coaching, data usage, and general management requirements.

2) Provide training for on-site principal mentors to ensure oversight of the candidate
Candidates will be provided both a campus level mentor that is on-site for assistance with practicum experiences as well as district level mentor.

3) Implementation/Exposure of the New Leaders Program with candidates.

All leadership positions at WISD is currently involved in the 2017 - 2018 New Leaders program sponsored by Texas Education Agency. Involving this instructional mind-set practice along with exposure to the program and belief will give WISD residents an accurate understanding of rigorous instruction across multiple levels. Involvement in leadership walks, collaborative administrative data sessions, department/grade level data team meetings, vertical alignment, and coaching conversations gives our residents a broad instructional understanding. This experience will provide the resident(s) with professional coaching at both the campus and district level along with the beginning stages of learning the craft to instructional coach teachers.

4) Candidates will lead PLC data meetings and disaggregate data to provide strategic initiatives to improve student achievement within the culture of the campus.

Residents will also be assigned a specific grade level or subject area (opposite of their current teaching position) to maximize their exposure. The resident will be involved in weekly planning meetings (also known as PLCs), six weeks Community of Practice Meetings, data analysis/break down, unit/benchmark creation, lesson planning, and evaluation, as well as horizontal alignment across the grade level/subject area.

5) Candidates will be the principal for the day.

When a campus principal and/or an assistant principal may be out for a day, WISD's principal preparation residents will fill in for the day gaining the front row experience of leadership. Additionally, residents will be allowed to assist with other areas of academics such as GT, 504, RTI, dyslexia, special education, and STAAR campus training, testing plans, and administration. The involvement would range from the initial start of the program at the beginning of the school year to planning activities, data meetings, committee meetings, and finally review at the end of the school year. Meetings may not just be campus level but at times district level.

6) Candidates will lead professional development in areas of instruction, curriculum, and discipline.

WISD residents will develop a campus academic, professional learning plan for the fall and spring semester. The resident(s) will work side by side with designated campus and district administration to evaluate the needs of the school, plan, prepare, execute, and assess each training.

7) Candidates will be members of the Campus Improvement Team and District Advisory Committee.

Candidates will assist with Campus Improvement Plan creation, implementation, and monitoring, as well as the District Advisory Committee. Campus morale will also be an area for growth for our resident(s).

2. The LEA must ensure that there is a systematic and informed targeted recruitment and selection process utilizing demonstrated criteria such as track record of measurable student achievement, evaluations/appraisals, interpersonal leadership, response to observations and feedback, and growth mindset to ensure quality of future principal pool. Plan for consideration of the following in LEA recruitment and selection strategy: degree to which the diversity of the residents mirrors that of the student population.

Teachers will receive an email request for candidates from the administrative office. Teachers may self-nominate to be in the program. In addition nominations will be solicited from campus administrators. Applicants will be pre-screened through the following criteria:

1. STAAR scores (if in a tested subject) are higher than the district average;
2. The applicant participates regularly in campus PLCs;
3. The most recent T-TESS evaluation was proficient or above in all areas with at least one or more areas accomplished or distinguished;

Applicants who meet these three standards will go through a short administrative interview to discuss curriculum, data, personal growth, personal vision, and campus vision.

2. Complete a written interview form that shows effectiveness in communication.
3. Have a recommendation completed by campus mentor regarding leadership potential.
4. In addition, the admission process requires the submission of transcripts from all institutions attended and a copy of service record.

3. The LEA must provide the name of the institution of higher education (IHE) or educator preparation program (EPP) providing principal preparation; the IHE's or EPP's scope and sequence that includes topics such as student culture routines, data-driven instruction, observation and feedback, team effectiveness, personal leadership, change management, and delivering effective professional development; and the IHE's or EPP's required reading and textbooks.

The institute of higher education that will be providing principal preparation is The University of Texas at Tyler. The scope of instruction is outlined in an attachment, showing the course sequence along with principal standards being addressed.

The sequence of courses are as follows:

Block 1 (Summer 2018) - EDLR 5310 (Educational Leadership Theory and Practice) and EDLR 5313 (Critical Issues in Educational Leadership).

In addition, students accepted will participate in candidate professional learning communities throughout the program in order to improve team effectiveness, personal leadership, and better understand local cultural expectations and needs. In addition, the practicums in the program will provide for rigorous clinical learning, with EDLR 5270 emphasizing instructional coaching, developmental supervision that uses observation and feedback through T-TESS and formative conferencing, and developing a better understanding of effective instructional and curricular practices. EDLR 5271 is a clinical learning experience that extends upon the instructional coaching to the utilization of campus-level research, targeted strategies that focus on data, and change management based on both campus research and data. EDLR 5272 will focus on planning and strategies, including professional development.

4. The LEA must provide the IHE's or EPP's candidate evaluation process and metrics; IHE's or EPP's instructional coaching protocols such as the tools used during observations to identify the highest leverage action steps for the principal resident and the protocol the IHE or EPP uses to conduct feedback sessions.

The University of Texas at Tyler uses the following evaluation process for candidates:

1. Multiple accountability measures are used within each class. These evaluations are designed to determine understanding and mastery of principal standards and competencies.
2. TExES formatted questions are provided in classes to further address the need to meet standards as determined by SBEC and TEA.
3. EDLR 5270 emphasizes instructional coaching. The following are the instructional coaching protocols:

Observation Expectations

Grading of Observations and Post-Conferences

As indicated on the syllabus, all assignments must be completed and submitted to receive credit for The Practicum I. Your field supervisor will award 10 points per component of the observation cycle, when the videos, observation form, and observation notes are submitted on time. Refer to the syllabus for the late work policy and the assignment schedule for due dates. Please note that the following assignments are not the only required assignments required. You will receive 10 points for each of the following observation components.

Lesson videos (2)

Observation checklist (video 1 only)

Scripted observation notes (video 1 only)

Anecdotal observation notes (video 2 only)

Post-observation conference videos (2)

4. EDLR 5271 evaluates an action research within the campus and emphasizes the use of data to assist with making decision on a campus.

5. Block 4 includes an exam that is aligned with the TExES principal competencies and provides for targeted interventions if this is needed for an individual student.

The candidate PLCs that will occur during the semesters lend itself to high leverage instruction in areas of instructional coaching, cultural development of the campus, and data use to influence decision-making. The use of district employees to assist in these PLCs ensure the embedding of research-based, high-leverage practices.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)

- ☒ Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- ☒ Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- ☒ Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Texas Educator Standards

Title 19: Chapter 149, Subchapter AA

§149.2001. Principal Standards.

(a) Purpose. The standards, indicators, knowledge, and skills identified in this section shall be used to align with the training, appraisal, and professional development of principals.

(b) Standards.

(1) Standard 1--Instructional Leadership. The principal is responsible for ensuring every student receives high-quality instruction.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective instructional leaders:

(I) prioritize instruction and student achievement by developing and sharing a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from research;

(II) implement a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards;

(III) analyze the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;

(IV) model instructional strategies and set expectations for the content, rigor, and structure of lessons and unit plans; and

(V) routinely monitor and improve instruction by visiting classrooms, giving formative feedback to teachers, and attending grade or team meetings.

(ii) In schools led by effective instructional leaders, data are used to determine instructional decisions and monitor progress. Principals implement common interim assessment cycles to track classroom trends and determine appropriate interventions. Staff have the capacity to use data to drive effective instructional practices and interventions. The principal's focus on instruction results in a school filled with effective teachers who can describe, plan, and implement strong instruction and classrooms filled with students actively engaged in cognitively challenging and differentiated activities.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Rigorous and aligned curriculum and assessment. The principal implements rigorous curricula and assessments aligned with state standards, including college and career readiness standards.

(ii) Effective instructional practices. The principal develops high-quality instructional practices among teachers that improve student learning.

(iii) Data-driven instruction and interventions. The principal monitors multiple forms of student data to inform instructional and intervention decisions and to close the achievement gap.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective leaders of human capital:

(I) treat faculty/staff members as their most valuable resource and invest in the development, support, and supervision of the staff;

(III) are strategic in selecting and hiring candidates whose vision aligns with the school's vision and whose skills match the school's needs;

(IV) ensure that, once hired, teachers develop and grow by building layered supports that include regular observations, actionable feedback, and coaching and school-wide supports so that teachers know how they are performing;

(V) facilitate professional learning communities to review data and support development;

(VI) create opportunities for effective teachers and staff to take on a variety of leadership roles and delegate responsibilities to staff and administrators on the leadership team; and

(VII) use data from multiple points of the year to complete accurate evaluations of all staff, using evidence from regular observations, student data, and other sources to evaluate the effectiveness of teachers and staff.

(ii) In schools with effective leaders of human capital, staff understand how they are being evaluated and what the expectations are for their performance. Staff can identify areas of strength and have opportunities to practice and receive feedback on growth areas from the leadership team and peers. Staff evaluation data show variation based on effectiveness but also show improvement across years as development and retention efforts take effect. Across the school, staff support each other's development through regular opportunities for collaboration, and effective staff have access to a variety of leadership roles in the school.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Targeted selection, placement, and retention. The principal selects, places, and retains effective teachers and staff.

(II) motivate the school community by modeling a relentless pursuit of excellence;

(III) are reflective in their practice and strive to continually improve, learn, and grow;

(IV) view unsuccessful experiences as learning opportunities, remaining focused on solutions, and are not stymied by challenges or setbacks. When a strategy fails, these principals analyze data, assess implementation, and talk with stakeholders to understand what went wrong and how to adapt strategies moving forward;

(VI) have strong communication skills and understand how to communicate a message in different ways to meet the needs of various audiences;

(VII) are willing to listen to others and create opportunities for staff and stakeholders to provide feedback; and

(VIII) treat all members of the community with respect and develop strong, positive relationships with them.

(ii) In schools with effective executive leaders, teachers and staff are motivated and committed to excellence. They are vested in the school's improvement and participate in candid discussions of progress and challenges. They are comfortable providing feedback to the principal and other school leaders in pursuit of ongoing improvement, and they welcome feedback from students' families in support of improved student outcomes.

(B) Indicators.

(III) establish and communicate consistent expectations for staff and students, providing supportive feedback to ensure a positive campus environment;

(IV) focus on students' social and emotional development and help students develop resiliency and self-advocacy skills; and

(V) treat families as key partners to support student learning, creating structures for two-way communication and regular updates on student progress. Regular opportunities exist for both families and the community to engage with the school and participate in school functions.

(ii) In schools with effective culture leaders, staff believe in and are inspired by the school vision and have high expectations for all students. Staff take responsibility for communicating the vision in their classrooms and for implementing behavioral expectations throughout the building, not only in their own classrooms. Teachers regularly communicate with the families of their students to provide updates on progress and actively work with families to support learning at home. Members of the broader community regularly engage with the school community.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Shared vision of high achievement. The principal develops and implements a shared vision of high expectations for students and staff.

(ii) Culture of high expectations. The principal establishes and monitors clear expectations for adult and student conduct and implements social and emotional supports for students.

(iii) Intentional family and community engagement. The principal engages families and community members in student learning.

(iv) Safe school environment. The principal creates an atmosphere of safety that encourages the social, emotional, and physical well-being of staff and students.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective leaders of strategic operations:

(I) assess the current needs of their schools, reviewing a wide set of evidence to determine the schools' priorities and set ambitious and measurable school goals, targets, and strategies that form the schools' strategic plans;

(II) with their leadership teams, regularly monitor multiple data points to evaluate progress toward goals, adjusting strategies that are proving ineffective;

(III) develop a year-long calendar and a daily schedule that strategically use time to both maximize instructional time and to create regular time for teacher collaboration and data review;

(IV) are deliberate in the allocation of resources (e.g., staff time, dollars, and tools), aligning them to the school priorities and goals, and work to access additional resources as needed to support learning; and

(V) treat central office staff as partners in achieving goals and collaborate with staff throughout the district to adapt policies as needed to meet the needs of students and staff.

(ii) In schools with effective leaders of strategic operations, staff have access to resources needed to meet the needs of all students. Staff understand the goals and expectations for students, have clear strategies for meeting those goals, and have the capacity to track progress. Members of the staff collaborate with the principal to develop the school calendar. Teacher teams and administrator teams meet regularly to review and improve instructional strategies and analyze student data. Throughout the year, all staff participate in formal development opportunities that build the capacity to identify and implement strategies aligned to the school's improvement goals.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Strategic planning. The principal outlines and tracks clear goals, targets, and strategies aligned to a school vision that improves teacher effectiveness and student outcomes.

(ii) Maximized learning time. The principal implements daily schedules and a year-long calendar that plan for regular data-driven instruction cycles, give students access to diverse and rigorous course offerings, and build in time for staff professional development.

(i) Effective instructional leaders:

(I) prioritize instruction and student achievement by developing and sharing a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from research;

(II) implement a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards;

(III) analyze the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;

(IV) model instructional strategies and set expectations for the content, rigor, and structure of lessons and unit plans; and

Principals implement common interim assessment cycles to track classroom trends and determine appropriate interventions. Staff have the capacity to use data to drive effective instructional practices and interventions. University Policies

Code of Conduct

UT Tyler Academic Dishonesty Policy:

At the University of Texas at Tyler, students and faculty are responsible for maintaining an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students and faculty members are required to report an observed or a suspected case of academic dishonesty immediately to the faculty member in charge of an examination, classroom or laboratory research project, or other academic exercise.

Since the value of an academic degree depends on the absolute integrity of the work done by the student for the degree, it is imperative that a student maintains a high standard of individual honor in his/her scholastic work. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion:

“Cheating” includes:

1. Copying from the paper of another student, engaging in written, oral or any other means of communication with another student, or giving aid to or seeking aid from another student when not permitted by the instructor;
2. Using material during an examination or when completing an assignment that is not authorized by the person giving the examination or making the work assignment;

Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)

- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date

(See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

COURSE POLICIES

All assignments are expected to be completed to the best ability of the student and adhere to the stated assignment criteria.

Written assignments that require the student to redo and resubmit will be adjusted by 10%.

There is no extra credit work. However, students may choose to resubmit written assignments if they are not satisfied with their grade. If a student chooses to resubmit a written assignment, the student may earn up to 90% of the points. There are no retakes for quizzes, the midterm or the final exam.

All assignments must be submitted by date listed on the assignment schedule. Given the challenges that come with being a full-time educator while going to graduate school, each student has a one-time two-week grace period. The student has two options when using the one-time two-week grace period.

a. Submit the quiz and written assignment for ONE module up to two-weeks late without penalties. OR

EDLR 5311 Syllabus

b. Submit the quiz and assignment for TWO modules up to one-week late each without penalties.

The student must contact Dr. Oliveras-Ortiz to inform her that he/she will be using a “late pass”. If a written assignment is due and a “late pass” will be used, a note should be included with the assignment. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of due dates and keep Dr. Oliveras informed of any conflicts that result in late submissions. Failure to notify Dr. Oliveras that a “late pass” will be used will result in a late submission penalty as explained below.

Once the one-time two-week grace period has been used or if the student does not notify Dr. Oliveras when using a “late pass”, assignments will receive a 10% late submission penalty per week. If the assignment is more than a week late, an additional 10% will be deducted per week.

The “late passes” may not be used for the class discussions. To receive credit for the class discussions, the student must participate on time.

Participation and your commitment to your learning is critical to your success in any course. Your timely participation in the class discussion is a substantial part of your grade in this course. You will note that your original post to the class discussions will be due first while your response to your classmates will be due later in the module. This structure will ensure we can engage in meaningful conversations about instructional supervision. If you wait until Friday evenings, when the assignments are due, to complete the required readings and watch the lecture videos, you will not be successful in this course. Each module will be open at least 2 weeks prior to the due date to facilitate the required group discussions. Please plan accordingly!

I will respond to your emails as quickly as possible; my priority is to be supportive of your work to ensure your success. I generally reply to email within a few hours but given other commitment and responsibilities, my goal is to respond to emails sent during the week within 24 hours. While I try to respond to emails over the weekend as promptly as possible, emails sent over the weekend might not be read until Monday morning.

Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include: ·

Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit. · Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)

This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating

Action	Professor	Student
Technical/computer issues	I cannot address individual hardware/software issues established by single students. My recommendation is to begin your studies in ample time so that the due date is not pressing against you.	Irrespective of your technical problems, your assignments are due on time. There are no provisions in this course for late work or make-up work.
Tests, Quizzes and Online Assessments	Professor expects a high level of integrity, morality and professionalism from students.	Students are trusted to not copy these assessments for future students
Emails	I will attempt to answer emails within 24 hours of receipt.	Students must understand that I am not online 24/7, neither is it possible. In addition, the student/teacher ratio is high.
Online submissions	My intentions are to have students submitted assignments returned within 48 hours of submissions. Understand though that a major crisis might delay returns.	Early submissions enjoy a thorough assessment as opposed to those suffering from procrastination.
Out of Town	Online instruction should not be interrupted by being out of town. Internet should be available wherever I travel. In case it is not, I will make provisions so that class is not interrupted.	Student class responsibility should not be altered by student travel. Professor will still hold students accountability for the learning.
Avenues of Communication	Emails are the quickest way to reach me. I prefer students to not call me on my personal cell phone, however, if there is a pressing issue, then please call me at any time on my personal cellular phone. My office telephone is not a good way to reach me as my classes are online.	It is up to students to call.

Topical Outline

The course will be taught in six sessions.

Session One- General Overview

Session one takes the student through a general overview. This session introduces the student to the areas in which the principal/organization leader should focus. The topics of discussion involve the Seven Critical Success Factors found throughout the educational literature that make students academically successful and therefore schools, top-notch schools (Academic Performance, Use of Quality Data to Drive Instruction, Leadership Effectiveness, Increased Learning Time, Family and Community Engagement, School Climate and Teacher Quality). It also covers curriculum, instruction, assessment, T-TESS, observations, evaluations and most important, BEST PRACTICES.

Session Two- Best Practices in Reading

Session Three – Best Practices in Writing

Session Four – Best Practices in Mathematics

Session Five – Best Practices in Science

Session Six- Best Practices in Social Studies

Evaluation and Grading

Evaluation and grading in this course will be based on satisfactory completion of a major test in each of the six sessions, participation in Discussion Board, six assignments, completion of an observation in sessions 2-6, and a Final Exam.

Major Test – 100 points per session, $100 \times 6 = 600$ points

Discussion Board – 25 points per session, $25 \times 6 = 150$ points

Assignments – 10 points per session, $10 \times 5 = 50$ points

Observation – 20 points per session for sessions 2 – 6, $20 \times 5 = 100$ points

Final Exam – A 20-question Multiple Choice Exam with each question valued at 10 points each for a total of 200 points

Total Point Value = 1,100. It will take 990 points for a student to receive an A in the course, and 880 for a student to receive a B in the course. A grade lower than B is not expected.

Student Travel Policy

Since coursework for EDLR online classes can be attended to from any location with internet access, students are responsible for meeting class responsibilities regardless of travel choices. Travel during the scheduled semester is a student choice, and no provisions will be made to excuse students from published assignments or alter course assignment schedules.

Teaching Strategies

The professor will use a combination of lecture with power point presentations, Blackboard Version 8, video tapes, student and professor dialogues and conversations, discussion board, group collaboration, student individual readings, etc. to teach the course.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Students Rights and Responsibilities

To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link:

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.

- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the 12th day of class (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability Services

In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services office in UC 3150, or call (903) 566-7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement:

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation:

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.

Principal Standards

1. Standard 1--Instructional Leadership. The principal is responsible for ensuring every student receives high-quality instruction.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective instructional leaders:

- (I) prioritize instruction and student achievement by developing and sharing a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from research;
- (II) implement a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards;
- (III) analyze the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;
- (IV) model instructional strategies and set expectations for the content, rigor, and structure of lessons and unit plans; and
- (V) routinely monitor and improve instruction by visiting classrooms, giving formative feedback to teachers, and attending grade or team meetings.

(ii) In schools led by effective instructional leaders, data are used to determine instructional decisions and monitor progress. Principals implement common interim assessment cycles to track classroom trends and determine appropriate interventions. Staff have the capacity to use data to drive effective instructional practices and interventions. The principal's focus on instruction results in a school filled with effective teachers who can describe, plan, and implement strong instruction and classrooms filled with students actively engaged in cognitively challenging and differentiated activities.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Rigorous and aligned curriculum and assessment. The principal implements rigorous curricula and assessments aligned with state standards, including college and career readiness standards.

(ii) Effective instructional practices. The principal develops high-quality instructional practices among teachers that improve student learning.

(V) facilitate professional learning communities to review data and support development;

(VI) create opportunities for effective teachers and staff to take on a variety of leadership roles and delegate responsibilities to staff and administrators on the leadership team; and

(VII) use data from multiple points of the year to complete accurate evaluations of all staff, using evidence from regular observations, student data, and other sources to evaluate the effectiveness of teachers and staff.

(ii) In schools with effective leaders of human capital, staff understand how they are being evaluated and what the expectations are for their performance. Staff can identify areas of strength and have opportunities to practice and receive feedback on growth areas from the leadership team and peers. Staff evaluation data show variation based on effectiveness but also show improvement across years as development and retention efforts take effect. Across the school, staff support each other's development through regular opportunities for collaboration, and effective staff have access to a variety of leadership roles in the school.

Staff take responsibility for communicating the vision in their classrooms and for implementing behavioral expectations throughout the building, not only in their own classrooms. Teachers regularly communicate with the families of their students to provide updates on progress and actively work with families to support learning at home. Members of the broader community regularly engage with the school community.

Staff understand the goals and expectations for students, have clear strategies for meeting those goals, and have the capacity to track progress. Members of the staff collaborate with the principal to develop the school calendar. Teacher teams and administrator teams meet regularly to review and improve instructional strategies and analyze student data. Throughout the year, all staff participate in formal development opportunities that build the capacity to identify and implement strategies aligned to the school's improvement goals.

Evaluation and Grading

Course Grading

The practicum is a “Credit” or “No Credit” course. All work will be continued until it meets the standards judged by the professor. In the event that the Action Research Project is not finished or does not meet the graduate standards by the end of the semester, the student will receive “Incomplete” as the course grade. University policy dictates that graduate students have one semester to complete the coursework before an “F” is assigned. In addition, EDLR students may not proceed to Block IV classes until the incomplete work has been accepted.

Teaching Strategies

EDLR 5271 utilizes 100% online instruction through UT Canvas. Instructor uses lecture module format and a constructivist learning experience in an electronic environment. Since the class is exclusively online, the instructor will serve as a facilitator of knowledge and skills for the successful completion of the practicum experience.

Related Field Experiences

This course is application of EDLR 5313 on the local campus through research data collection, analysis, and reporting of data in the Action Research Project.

University Policies

Code of Conduct

UT Tyler Academic Dishonesty Policy:

At the University of Texas at Tyler, students and faculty are responsible for maintaining an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students and faculty members are required to report an observed or a suspected case of academic dishonesty immediately to the faculty member in charge of an examination, classroom or laboratory research project, or other academic exercise.

Since the value of an academic degree depends on the absolute integrity of the work done by the student for the degree, it is imperative that a student maintains a high standard of individual honor in his/her scholastic work. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion:

“Cheating” includes:

5. Copying from the paper of another student, engaging in written, oral or any other means of communication with another student, or giving aid to or seeking aid from another student when not permitted by the instructor;
6. Using material during an examination or when completing an assignment that is not authorized by the person giving the examination or making the work assignment;
7. Taking or attempting to take an examination for another student, or allowing another student to take an examination for oneself;
8. Using, obtaining, or attempting to obtain by any means, the whole or any part of an unadministered examination or work assignment.
- 9.

“Plagiarism” includes the unacknowledged incorporation of the work of another person in work that a student offers for credit.

“Collusion” includes the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work that a student offers for credit.

Students Rights and Responsibilities

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract. The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.

- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability Services

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychiatric disabilities. If you have a disability, including non-visible disabilities such as chronic diseases, learning disabilities, head injury, PTSD or ADHD, or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment you are encouraged to contact the Student Accessibility and Resources office and schedule an interview with the Accessibility Case Manager/ADA Coordinator, Cynthia Lowery Staples. If you are unsure if the above criteria applies to you, but have questions or concerns please contact the SAR office. Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via

Course Requirements

For details about assignments and due dates refer to the assignment schedule.

Course Grading

- . A 90-100% of points
- . B 80-89% of points

. C 70-79% of points

Recommended Textbook

Fullan, M. (2014). The Principal Three Keys to Maximizing Impact. San Francisco, California: Jossey-Bass.

"A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university- affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer."

COURSE POLICIES

All assignments are expected to be completed to the best ability of the student and adhere to the stated assignment criteria.

Assignments that require the student to redo and resubmit will be adjusted by 10%.

There is no extra credit work. However, students may choose to resubmit written assignments if they are not satisfied with their grade. If a student chooses to resubmit a written assignment, the student may earn up to 90% of the points. There are no retakes for quizzes, the midterm or the final exam.

All assignments must be submitted by date listed on the assignment schedule. Given the challenges that come with being a full-time educator while going to graduate school, each student has a one- time two-week grace period. The student has two options when using the one-time two-week grace period.

- Submit the assignments for ONE module up to two-weeks late without penalties. OR
- Submit the assignments for TWO modules up to one-week late each without penalties.

The student must contact Dr. Oliveras-Ortiz to inform her that he/she will be using a "late pass". If a written assignment is due and a “late pass” will be used, a note should be included with the assignment. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of due dates and keep Dr. Oliveras informed of any conflicts that result in late submissions. Failure to notify Dr. Oliveras that a “late pass” will be used will result in a late submission penalty as explained below.

Once the one-time two-week grace period has been used or if the student does not notify Dr. Oliveras when using a “late pass”, assignments will receive a 10% late submission penalty per week. If the assignment is more than a week late, an additional 10% will be deducted per week.

The “late passes” may not be used for the class discussions. To receive credit for the class discussions, the student must participate on time.

Participation and your commitment to your learning is critical to your success in any course. Your timely participation in the class discussion and group assignments is a substantial part of your grade in this course. You will note that your original post to the class discussions will be due first while your response to your classmates will be due later in the module. This structure will ensure we can engage in meaningful conversations about instructional supervision. If you wait until Friday evenings, when the assignments are due, to complete the required readings and watch the lecture videos, you will not be successful in this course. Each module will be open at least 2 weeks prior to the due date to facilitate the required group participation. Please plan accordingly!

Communication

To contact me via email, you may use the Canvas email. Click on the Inbox on the left side of the Canvas main menu. Through Canvas, you may send a text email or a video message. You may also email me at yoliverasortiz@uttyler.edu. Please note that this is not a Patriots email address.

I will respond to your emails as quickly as possible; my priority is to be supportive of your work to ensure your success. I generally reply to email within a few hours but given other commitment and responsibilities, my goal is to respond to emails sent during the week within 24 hours. While I try to respond to emails over the weekend as promptly as possible, emails sent over the weekend might not be read until Monday morning.

Written Assignments, Quizzes & Exams

Some of the written assignments in this course require collaboration with other students; your participation as documented on Canvas will count towards the participation grade.

All other written assignments as well as all quizzes and exams are individual assignments. Students may not collaborate on the individual assignments. Unauthorized collaboration is considered cheating and will be handled according to University Policies and the Students Standards of Academic Conduct.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

The following University policies must appear on each course syllabus or be provided as an informational sheet (web-links to these policies may be used in the print or electronic syllabus)

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.

- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment

- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability/Accessibility Services: In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University of Texas at Tyler offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychological disabilities. If you have a disability, including non-visible a diagnosis such as a learning disorder, chronic illness, TBI, PTSD, ADHD, or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment, you are encouraged to visit <https://hood.accessiblelearning.com/UTTyler> and fill out the New Student application. The Student Accessibility and Resources (SAR) office will contact you when your application has been submitted and an appointment with Cynthia Lowery, Assistant Director Student Services/ADA Coordinator. For more information, including filling out an application for services, please visit the SAR webpage at <http://www.uttyler.edu/disabilityservices>, the SAR office located in the University Center, # 3150 or call 903.566.7079

Principal Standards

1. Standard 1--Instructional Leadership. The principal is responsible for ensuring every student receives high-quality instruction.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective instructional leaders:

(I) prioritize instruction and student achievement by developing and sharing a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from research;

(II) implement a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards;

(III) analyze the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;

(IV) model instructional strategies and set expectations for the content, rigor, and structure of lessons and unit plans; and

(V) routinely monitor and improve instruction by visiting classrooms, giving formative feedback to teachers, and attending grade or team meetings.

(ii) In schools led by effective instructional leaders, data are used to determine instructional decisions and monitor progress. Principals implement common interim assessment cycles to track classroom trends and determine appropriate interventions. Staff have the capacity to use data to drive effective instructional practices and interventions. The principal's focus on instruction results in a school filled with effective teachers who can describe, plan, and implement strong instruction and classrooms filled with students actively engaged in cognitively challenging and differentiated activities.

(B) Indicators.

(V) facilitate professional learning communities to review data and support development;

(VI) create opportunities for effective teachers and staff to take on a variety of leadership roles and delegate responsibilities to staff and administrators on the leadership team; and

(VII) use data from multiple points of the year to complete accurate evaluations of all staff, using evidence from regular observations, student data, and other sources to evaluate the effectiveness of teachers and staff.

(ii) In schools with effective leaders of human capital, staff understand how they are being evaluated and what the expectations are for their performance. Staff can identify areas of strength and have opportunities to practice and receive feedback on growth areas from the leadership team and peers. Staff evaluation data show variation based on effectiveness but also show improvement across years as development and retention efforts take effect. Across the school, staff support each other's development through regular opportunities for collaboration, and effective staff have access to a variety of leadership roles in the school.

(B) Indicators.

(II) motivate the school community by modeling a relentless pursuit of excellence;

(III) are reflective in their practice and strive to continually improve, learn, and grow;

(IV) view unsuccessful experiences as learning opportunities, remaining focused on solutions, and are not stymied by challenges or setbacks. When a strategy fails, these principals analyze data, assess implementation, and talk with stakeholders to understand what went wrong and how to adapt strategies moving forward;

(V) keep staff inspired and focused on the end goal even as they support effective change management;

(VI) have strong communication skills and understand how to communicate a message in different ways to meet the needs of various audiences;

(VII) are willing to listen to others and create opportunities for staff and stakeholders to provide feedback; and

(VIII) treat all members of the community with respect and develop strong, positive relationships with them.

(ii) In schools with effective executive leaders, teachers and staff are motivated and committed to excellence. They are vested in the school's improvement and participate in candid discussions of progress and challenges. They are comfortable providing feedback to the principal and other school leaders in pursuit of ongoing improvement, and they welcome feedback from students' families in support of improved student outcomes.

progress. Regular opportunities exist for both families and the community to engage with the school and participate in school functions.

(ii) In schools with effective culture leaders, staff believe in and are inspired by the school vision and have high expectations for all students. Staff take responsibility for communicating the vision in their classrooms and for implementing behavioral expectations throughout the building, not only in their own classrooms. Teachers regularly communicate with the families of their students to provide updates on progress and actively work with families to support learning at home. Members of the broader community regularly engage with the school community.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Shared vision of high achievement. The principal develops and implements a shared vision of high expectations for students and staff.

(ii) Culture of high expectations. The principal establishes and monitors clear expectations for adult and student conduct and implements social and emotional supports for students.

(II) with their leadership teams, regularly monitor multiple data points to evaluate progress toward goals, adjusting strategies that are proving ineffective;

(III) develop a year-long calendar and a daily schedule that strategically use time to both maximize instructional time and to create regular time for teacher collaboration and data review;

(IV) are deliberate in the allocation of resources (e.g., staff time, dollars, and tools), aligning them to the school priorities and goals, and work to access additional resources as needed to support learning; and

(V) treat central office staff as partners in achieving goals and collaborate with staff throughout the district to adapt policies as needed to meet the needs of students and staff.

(ii) In schools with effective leaders of strategic operations, staff have access to resources needed to meet the needs of all students. Staff understand the goals and expectations for students, have clear strategies for meeting those goals, and have the capacity to track progress. Members of the staff collaborate with the principal to develop the school calendar. Teacher teams and administrator teams meet regularly to review and improve instructional strategies and analyze student data. Throughout the year, all staff participate in formal development opportunities that build the capacity to identify and implement strategies aligned to the school's improvement goals.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Strategic planning. The principal outlines and tracks clear goals, targets, and strategies aligned to a school vision that improves teacher effectiveness and student outcomes.

*Note: The above student learning outcomes comprise Texas Examination of Educator Standards (TExES) for standard principal certification.

Online Expectations, Responsibilities and Accountability

Action	Professor	Student
	I cannot address individual hardware/software issues	Irrespective of your technical problems, your

Technical/computer issues	established by single students. My recommendation is to begin your studies in ample time so that the due date is not pressing against you.	assignments are due on time. There are no provisions in this course for late work or make-up work.
Tests, Quizzes and Online Assessments	Professor expects a high level of integrity, morality and professionalism from students.	Students are trusted to not copy these assessments for future students
Emails	I will attempt to answer emails within 24 hours of receipt.	Students must understand that I am not online 24/7, neither is it possible. In addition, the student/teacher ratio is high.
Online submissions	My intentions are to have students submitted assignments returned within 48 hours of submissions. Understand though that a major crisis might delay returns.	Early submissions enjoy a thorough assessment as opposed to those suffering from procrastination.
Out of Town	Online instruction should not be interrupted by being out of town. Internet should be available wherever I travel. In case it is not, I will make provisions so that class is not interrupted.	Student class responsibility should not be altered by student travel. Professor will still hold students accountability for the learning.
Avenues of Communication	Emails are the quickest way to reach me. I prefer students to not call me on my personal cell phone, however, if there is a pressing issue, then please call me at any time on my personal cellular phone. My office telephone is not a good way to reach me as my classes are online.	It is up to students to call.

The principal, in general, leads and manages in a way so as to change the nature of schools from the interior, letting go of the traditional philosophical beliefs and actions along with the understandings of brick and mortar and structural changes to the organization and processes. The principal, specifically, rethinks continuously of ways to improve teaching and learning with the ultimate goal being to improve student achievement individually and collectively. Specifically, changing today's schools so that students are future ready when they graduate.

Assessments

EDLR 5337 is an integral component of the Educational Leadership Program. Student Learning Outcomes for 5337 are derived from the Student Learning Outcomes for the Educational Leadership Program. These outcomes are infused into the Modules Quizzes which are written as TExES practice.

Quizzes. There are 10 quizzes. The quizzes are designed to assess understanding of the content, and to assure students are participating in the online modules. In addition, the quizzes are good practice for the TExES examination.

Assignments. There are 10 assignments. The assignments are decision-making sets designed to engage students in the types of managerial situations principals have to deal with in their daily practice.

Discussion Board. Discussion Board. We will use the book Case Studies in 21st Century School Administration for Discussion Board. The ISBN-13:978-1-4129-2752-9 will help you locate the book for purchase. The book is not listed on the department's book list. The cases in this book are not set, but will be chosen at random depending on the flow of the class. Principals need good analytical and problem-solving skills to be effective in their jobs. These discussions should present different perspectives on certain issues. Discussion Board might be used by any social media outlet (not just Blackboard). All students must participate in discussions. There will be a discussion in each of the modules. The total point value for Discussion Board is 100 points. The professor reserves the right to treat the points as he sees fit. Point totals are strictly controlled, assigned, calculated, maintained, and otherwise calculated in the students' final grad

Final Examination. The Final Project/Examination will be the last assessment for this course. The final examination is a Multiple Choice examination written by the department, and is comprehensive over the entire program. It is TExES based.

Evaluation and Grading

Quizzes (10 at 50 points each)	500 points

Instructions

- Log – listing your internship activities
- Reflection – Passing the Principal TExES Exam – relating your field experiences to the principles and concepts discussed in the reading assignments ☐ For Modules 6 – 10

- Log – listing your internship activities
- Reflection – Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators – relating your field experiences to the “enforceable standards” (i.e., [1] Professional Ethical Conduct, Practices and Performances, [2] Ethical Conduct Toward Professional Colleagues, and [3] Ethical Conduct Toward Students).

All sections are beneficial. The log allows for the reconstruction of the activities engaged in and the reflection allows you to examine the meaning and implications of your actions in terms of a campus leader.

By the end of the semester, you will have accomplished two things as an administrative intern: (a) a written record of your leadership, management, and curriculum and instruction activities (b) a series of reflections and analyses on your perceptions of leadership and yourself.

Note:

- ☐ Some days you may have nothing to log because you did not perform any internship activities.
- ☐ You must submit an eJournal entry every due date even if no activities were logged.

Attachment 3: Instructional Coaching Protocols

As part of your Practicum in the Principalship I, in order to focus on the development of your instructional coaching skills, you are required to conduct 2 observations and 2 post-observation conferences. Below are the steps to successfully complete the required observation.

Identify a teacher who agrees to go through the two observation cycles during this semester. You will lead these observation cycles. The grade level and content taught by the teacher you choose to work with is complete up to you.

Set up a time to observe him/her and record a full lesson (one lesson at a time).

The lesson should be about 45 minutes to capture the beginning, middle and end of the lesson.

Record a short introduction to the observation video, where you tell your field supervisor who you are about to observe and the content you are going to observe, as if you were walking into the classroom together for both observations.

Submit the video of the lesson for your field supervisor to watch.

Contact your field supervisor to schedule a Zoom or Skype meeting to discuss the observation and prepare for the post-observation conference that you will have with your colleague.

Watch the lesson and take scripted notes and complete the observation form (expectations posted on Canvas).

Meet with your field supervisor.

Finalize the post-observation conference plan.

Hold and record the post-observation with your colleague.

Submit the video of you leading the first post-observation conference and your observation notes.

Contact your field supervisor to schedule a Zoom or Skype meeting to reflect and discuss the post-observation conference.

End of the first observation cycle

Set up a time to observe your colleague and record the second full lesson.

Remember that the lesson should be about 45 minutes to capture the beginning, middle and end of the lesson.

Record a short introduction to the observation video.

Submit the video of the second lesson for your field supervisor to watch.

Contact your field supervisor to schedule a Zoom or Skype meeting to discuss the second observation and prepare for the second post-observation conference.

Watch the lesson and take anecdotal notes (expectations posted on Canvas).

Meet with your field supervisor.

Finalize the second post-observation conference plan.

Hold and record the second post-observation with your colleague.

Submit the video of you leading the second post-observation conference and your observation notes.

Contact your field supervisor to schedule a Zoom or Skype meeting to reflect and discuss the second post-observation conference.

End of the second observation cycle

Additional Important Information

During the Practicum, you will work with 3 school administrators. Below are important definitions of the role of each administration to help you understand the role of your field supervisor in the observation process.

1. Your site supervisor - your principal who will oversee your practicum and will help you complete the required 80 hours of internship.
2. Your field supervisor - an experienced current or retired school principal who has been contracted by UT Tyler, who will be assigned to support and coach you throughout this practicum.
3. Your instructor - Dr. Oliveras-Ortiz, a former school principal, who has designed this course and will support you throughout this practicum.

As required by the Texas Education Agency, your field supervisor will observe and coach you as develop your instructional leadership skills. Given that this Practicum is an online course, we will conduct these observations by watching the videos you will submit (the 2 lessons and the 2 post-observation conferences). As indicated above, you will meet with your field supervisor before and after you conduct the post-observation conferences. These are state-required coaching meetings. The meetings will be held virtually via Zoom or Skype.

Given that these observation and coaching sessions are state requirements, you will not receive credit for the Practicum if you fail to submit the videos and/or to participate in the required coaching meetings with your field supervisor.

Your field supervisor will provide written feedback (via email) after each coaching meeting. As required by the State, your site supervisor and instructor will receive a copy of the written feedback.

The coaching and feedback shall focus on the development of your leadership skills, aligned to the Texas Principal Standards. A copy of these standards has been posted on Canvas.

Grading of Observations and Post-Conferences

As indicated on the syllabus, all assignments must be completed and submitted to receive credit for The Practicum I. Your field supervisor will award 10 points per component of the observation cycle, when the videos, observation form, and observation notes are submitted on time. Refer to the syllabus for the late work policy and the assignment schedule for due dates. Please note that the following assignments are not the only required assignments required.

You will receive 10 points for each of the following observation components.

1. Lesson videos (2)
2. Observation checklist (video 1 only)
3. Scripted observation notes (video 1 only)
4. Anecdotal observation notes (video 2 only)
5. Post-observation conference videos (2)

Finally, make sure you keep track of the time you spend preparing and conducting the observations and post conferences, as well as the time you spend working on the observation notes. These activities are all designed to help you complete the required 80 hours and should be included in your time log.

4. EDLR 5271 evaluates an action research within the campus and emphasizes the use of data to assist with making decision on a campus.
5. Block 4 includes an exam that is aligned with the TExES principal competencies and provides for targeted interventions if this is needed for an individual student.

The candidate PLCs that will occur during the semesters lend itself to high leverage instruction in areas of instructional coaching, cultural development of the campus, and data use to influence decision-making. The use of district employees to assist in these PLCs ensure that embedding the research-based, high-leverage practices within the culture are more likely.

Attachment 4: Evaluation Process and Metrics

The University of Texas at Tyler uses the following evaluation process for candidates:

1. Multiple accountability measures are used within each class. These evaluations are designed to determine understanding and mastery of principal standards and competencies.
2. TExES formatted questions are provided in classes to further address the need to meet standards as determined by SBEC and TEA.
3. EDLR 5270 emphasizes instructional coaching. The following are the instructional coaching protocols:
